PUBLIC NOTICES

IMPORT TRADE CONTROL

New Delhi, the 30th December 1965

SUBJECT.—Import of Photographic Flash bulbs against import licences issued for photographic negatives and printing paper etc. (S. No. 303-IV) during April 1965—March 1966.

No. 112-ITC(PN)/65.—Attention is invited to remark (i) against S. No. 303/IV Photographic negatives and printing paper, excluding X-Ray films in the Import Policy Book (Red Book) for the current period in terms of which upto 20% of the face value of the quota licences for this item can be utilised for the import of Photographic flash bulbs.

2. As a result of representations received from the trade, the position has been reviewed and it has been decided that remark (i) against S. No. 303-/IV in the Import Policy Book (Red Book) for the current period may be deemed to have been amended as under:—

"(i) Upto 50% of the face value of the quota licences may be utilised for the import of Photographic flash bulbs."

SUBJECT.—Import of machinery, components thereof, equipment, other commodities and raw materials from the U.S.A. under AID non-Project Loan.

No. 113-ITC(PN)/65.—Attention of importers is invited to Ministry of Commerce Public Notice No. 52-ITC(PN)/65, dated the 20th July, 1965 setting out the details of the Letter of Commitment Procedure applicabple to import licences issued from the 1st April, 1965 onwards against U.S. AID Non-Project Loans, under the Letter of Commitment Procedure.

2. In Annexure II of the aforesaid Public Notice, the form of Bank Guarantee which the licensee has to furnish to the Ministry of Finance (Department of Economic Affairs) for obtaining an authorisation from that Department for the opening of a Commercial Letter of Credit in favour of U.S. Suppliers, is given. This form provides inter-alia that the guarantee shall remain valid for a period of eighteen months and if no action is brought against the Bank executing the guarantee within a period of three years from the date of expiry of the guarantee, the Bank shall stand released from all their liabilities under the guarantee. It has now been decided that, while the validity period of the Bank Guarantee will remain as eighteen months, the further period of three years which the present Bank Guarantee form provides for bringing action, if any, against the Bank, shall be reduced to one year. Accordingly, the existing provision contained in the last para of Annexure II (Bank Guarantee Form) to Public Notice No. 52-ITC(PN)/65 dated 20th July, 1965 may be deemed to have been revised as under:—

> "This guarantee shall remain valid for a period of eighteen months from the date hereof and if no action is brought against us within a period of one year from the date of expiry of this guarantee, we shall stand released from all our liabilities under this guarantee."

The other provisions in the Bank Guarantee form in Annexure II of Public Notice No 52-ITC(PN)/65, dated the 20th July, 1965 shall remain unchanged.

PUBLIC NOTICE

New Delhi, the 30th December 1965

SUBJECT.—Export of Cotton Textiles to the United Kingdom.

No. P.N. (U.K. LICENSING)/12 of 1965.—Attention is invited to Public Notice No. P.N. (U.K. Licensing)/2 of 1961 dated the 16th November, 1961.

2. With reference to paragraph 5 of the Public Notice referred to above, it has been decided that submission of the certificate as prescribed thereunder shall, with effect from the 15th January 1966, be on the revised form attached hereto, in triplicate. One copy of the certificate in the revised form duly certified by the Export Control Licensing Authorities at the Port and duly countersigned by the Customs along with a photostat copy of the export licence shall be sent by the exporter to the importer in the United Kingdom. Another photostat copy of the licence and a copy of the certificate similarly certified and authenticated should be sent simultaneously to the Import Licensing Branch of the Board of Trade, Victoria Street, London S.W. 1 U.K., to enable them to issue the necessary import licence without application from the importer.

3. In respect of shipments of cotton textiles to the United Kingdom from India which take place between the 1st January and the 14th January, 1966, clearance by the U.K. Customs will only be allowed on production of import licences issued by the U.K. Board of Trade. For this purpose, the exporter should submit the certificate in the existing form in triplicate to the Export Control Licensing Authorities at the time of passing the shipping bill, who will verify the certificate with the particulars given in the shipping documents and duly sign all the three copies and retain one copy. When the documents are produced to the Customs for effecting shipment, the two copies of the certificate duly signed by the Export Control Licensing Authorities will be countersigned by the Customs and returned to the exporter. One copy of this certificate should be sent by the exporter to the importer in the U.K. and another copy should be sent simultaneously to the Import Licensing Branch of the Board of Trade, Victoria Street, London S.W. 1., U.K., to enable them to issue the necessary import licence on receipt of an application from the importer.
